

Mount Pisgah Arboretum

Suggested Loop Walks

Mount Pisgah Arboretum has over seven miles of trails for you to explore. Consider one of these loops:

1. Universal Access Loop (on map).

Easy-moderate loop through riparian, wetlands, and oak savanna habitats. Wide trails with minimal cross slope and regular resting spots. Starting on Riverbank Trail recommended.

Elevation: Level

Length: ~1 mile

2. "Barrier Free" Loop (on map).

Moderate loop through a variety of habitats. Gradual slopes and elevation gain. Some narrower trails. Starting on Creek Trails recommended

Elevation: ~80 ft. gain

Length: ~1.5 mile

3. Tried-and-True Loop. More difficult, good for all seasons:

Riverbank Trail through Water Garden Trails to Pond Lily Trail, up Jette Trail, along Lower Plateau Trail, down Zig-zag Trail, and back on Creek Trails.

Elevation: ~200 ft. gain

Length: ~1.5 miles
